

Global Tax Management Welcomes Former Big 4 Director Jim Swanick to its Greater Philadelphia Practice

RADNOR, Pa. (January 12, 2017) —Global Tax Management, Inc. (GTM), is pleased to announce the addition of 25+ year industry veteran Jim Swanick as a Managing Director within its Radnor, PA office, serving Greater Philadelphia. In this role, Jim will oversee engagements for large public multinational companies as GTM’s client base continues to expand in the region.

“Jim possesses an extensive tax technical background that will serve as a strong complement to our existing delivery capabilities,” notes Dave Laurinaitis, CEO & Executive Director of GTM. “Having Jim on board enhances our ability to provide GTM’s growing client base with the quality of service and caliber of tax talent they expect and deserve.”

Jim spent the last ten years at Deloitte’s Philadelphia office as a Director in its Business Tax Services group, managing the delivery of tax services to a diverse mix of publicly traded and privately held corporations. Jim’s areas of focus included auditing, corporate tax provisions for large multinational corporations, corporate tax return compliance, and various tax consulting engagements. His technical experience includes advising on corporate mergers and acquisition transactions, earnings and profits and stock basis studies, Section 382 analysis, and accounting methods reviews.

Prior to Deloitte, he was a Senior Tax Manager at PwC Philadelphia, serving in both its Private Company Services (PCS) and Mergers & Acquisitions (M&A) groups.

Jim holds a B.S. in Accounting from West Chester University, and an M.S. in Taxation from Villanova University.

For more than 20 years, GTM has provided the expertise to build, operate, and manage tax department functions for its clients. Core services include tax provision, compliance, international tax, indirect tax, technology automation, and tax planning and minimization services.
