

TRAVIS HEDGEPETH

Director

Travis is a Director in GTM's North Carolina Practice, where he leads the firm's growth and expansion efforts across the North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Virginia regions.

He brings more than fifteen years of experience serving multinational companies in the areas of accounting for income taxes (ASC 740) and compliance services for Federal and International tax. Travis advises clients in all aspects of income tax accounting including FIN48, FIN18, APB23, and purchase accounting, and has substantial experience advising companies in need of transactional tax services due to corporate transactions.

Prior to joining the GTM, Travis was a Senior Manager in EY's National Tax Department's Tax Accounting and Risk Advisory Services Group ("NTD TARAS"), where he served large multinational companies on technical income tax accounting matters related to divestitures, carve-outs, spin-offs, and business combinations. He directed teams in the preparation and review of annual and quarterly tax provisions.

On the private sector side, Travis served in roles in which he was responsible for the worldwide tax accounting process under ASC 740 and all aspects of U.S. International tax compliance and reporting.

Travis resides in Wilmington, NC with his wife, two children, and Labrador Retriever. He enjoys spending time with his family going to the beach and sporting events.
